

MEMORANDUM

September 4, 2019

VIA EMAIL

TO: NCAA Wrestling Officials.

FROM: Anthony Holman
Managing Director, Championships and Alliances

Ryan Tressel
Director, Championships and Alliances

J.P. Williams
Assistant Director, Championships and Alliances.

SUBJECT: 2019-20 NCAA Wrestling Registration and Referee Clinics.

The NCAA wrestling rules exam and video will be available online beginning 8 a.m. Eastern time, Monday, September 16 and closing at 5 p.m. Eastern time, Monday, October 21. Chuck Barbee, secretary-rules editor, and Tim Shiels, national coordinator of officials will review new rules, points of emphasis and referee mechanics for the upcoming season. All referees who wish to be eligible to officiate NCAA wrestling competition are required to register on the ArbiterSports website (registration opens September 10).

Each referee assigned to NCAA wrestling competition is required to annually pass the online exam and view both the new rules presentation and the referee mechanics video. This year's exam will have questions from the 2019-20, 2020-21 Rules Book and Case Book. The NCAA Wrestling Case Book is the new home for all wrestling interpretations and can be found on the Center Mat website under the rules book tab.
